The screenshot shows the myGov website interface. At the top, there is a green navigation bar with the myGov logo and links for Home, Services, Inbox, and Account settings. A Sign out button is located in the top right corner. Below the navigation bar, the user is greeted with "Good morning LARRY". To the right of the greeting, the user's name "LARRY ATKINS" and date of birth "5 October 1956" are displayed, along with the last sign-in time: "Last sign-in: 20 May 2020 10:56:18 am AEST". A blue notification banner contains an information icon and the text: "We recommend you update your sign-in options to receive a code when you sign-in." Below the notification, there is a light blue section titled "Government support for Coronavirus" with a lightbulb icon. The text in this section reads: "If your circumstances are affected by Coronavirus (COVID-19), you may be eligible for support from the Australian Government." A dark grey "Continue" button is positioned below the text. Under the heading "Your services", there is a card for the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) featuring the ATO logo and the text "Australian Taxation Office".

You can see 2019-2020, Income statement Year to date. You can take these income and tax figures to be entered into the Tax calculator.

Please note that, when your employer completes the payroll for the year and reports to the ATO, the status will be changed as “Tax ready”. Otherwise, it will have “Year to date” figures.

Income statements

The employers listed below have reported payroll information. When using this information to prepare your tax return, note:

- > 'Tax ready' means this statement is complete and will be pre-filled in your tax return.
- > 'Year to date' or 'Not tax ready' means the statement may be incomplete and must be checked before it is used. Your employer has until 31 July to finalise the information.
- > If you believe the amounts are incorrect, you should contact your employer.
